Head Coach Frank Howard

About The Coach . . .

For Frank Howard, this is a year of uncertainty. The veteran of many football wars says he has never started a season when he had so many problems and people were expecting so much.

The Tigers are a "Top 20" selection in just about every pre-season poll, but this is nothing new to Howard. Losing as many boys as were lost last year is something out of the ordinary.

But Howard is starting his 30th season on the Clemson staff and 21st as head coach with apprehension. So much depends on so many untried sophomores.

Howard came to Clemson in 1931 after playing on the 1930 Alabama Rose Bowl team. After serving nine years as line coach at Clemson he was elevated to head coach and his teams have won conference championships five times—1940, 1948, 1956, 1958 and 1959. Six times in the last 12 years Clemson has been to post-season bowls under Howard's guidance.

In his entire head coaching career Howard has won 115, lost 70 and tied 10. In seven years of ACC competition Howard has a 24-10-1 league mark and 46-23-3 overall record.

Century Club . . .

Nine coaches who are at major football institutions have now won 100 or more games in their career. Two of them—Bear Bryant and Johnny Vaught—joined the "Century Club" during the 1959 season. Frank Howard of the Clemson Tigers ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

Assistant Coaches . . .

Bob Jones

Bob Jones has been around Clemson longer than Frank Howard but their association did not commence until Howard came here as line coach in 1931. Jones, who had been coaching for Josh Cody while still a student at Clemson, was kept on by new head coach Jess Neely and Jones has never left.

Jones

head boxing coach when Clemson fielded a team.

The native of Starr is married to the former Ellen Moseley of Anderson and they are the parents of three daughters, Janet, Rose and Robin.

Jones entered Clemson in 1926 and was destined to be one of the great Clemson athletes. He was an outstanding end for Cody three years and was named to the All-South team; and he captained the basketball team during his senior year.

Although Jones handles the end coaching now, he has in the past coached freshmen teams and was

Banks McFadden

Banks McFadden has been called the greatest athlete the State of South Carolina ever produced. No one has stepped forward to deny this fact. He was named to both the All-American basketball and football teams in the calendar year 1939 and at the state track meet in 1940, he broke three track records and two of these still stand after hundreds of athletes have taken a shot at them.

The Great Falls great participated in the Chicago All-Star game in '40 and then played one year of pro ball with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

However, he returned to Clemson after that and has held various coaching positions such as freshman football, varsity basketball and head track and cross country. However, he now devotes his full time as defensive backfield coach in football.

He is a member of the All-time Cotton Bowl team and in 1939-40 was named the nation's most versatile athlete.

McFadden is married to the former "Aggie" Rigby of Manning and they are the parents of four daughters, Patsy, 14, Lil, 12, Marcia, 8 and Jan, 6.

He was in the Navy during World War II, after which he returned to his alma mater and served as head football coach. During the war he coached at Jacksonville Naval Air Station.

His specific job upon coming to Clemson was to help the Tigers prepare for the many "T" teams they were beginning to face. However, he played a big part in helping Clemson switch from the single wing to the "T" in 1952.

The Georgia native also served as baseball coach and in 1954 won the conference championship and was named coach of the year in the ACC.

He is married to the former Catherine Jordan of Dillon and they are the parents of two daughters, Sandy, 14, and Becky, 12, and one son, Bob, Jr., 8.

Upon first returning to Clemson he also handled the freshman baseball teams.

Wade, who is a native of Lenoir City, Tenn., spends a great deal of his time on the road seeking out top prospects for Clemson. He has made the first contact on many of the Tigers' past and present top athletes.

He is married to the former Barbara Henderson of Clemson and they are the parents of two daughters, Donna, 8, and Beth, 4, and one son, Clint, 2.

Charlie Waller

Charlie Waller came to Clemson at the beginning of the 1957 season and has developed some of the best offensive backfields ever seen at Tigertown.

In '57 Clemson led the conference in total offense and the '58 and '59 teams won the ACC title and played in post-season games each year.

Waller

Prior to coming to Clemson Waller coached at Auburn and Texas and there his teams led their respective conferences in offense.

Waller graduated from Oglethorpe in 1942 and captained the Petrels last football team.

Following that he coached at Decatur, Ga., four years where his teams had a 43-3-1 record, winning the last 25 in a row. The Navy veteran was named coach of the year in Georgia for his efforts at Decatur and he also coached the Georgia all-star team that season.

Waller is married to the former Maxine Ellis of Montgomery, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters, Cheryl Lynne, 5, Karen Jo, 4, and Mary Frances, 1.

1960 rules changes

—by Charles W. Tucker, Jr.

● The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association was apparently well satisfied with the rules which were in effect last year, as they have made few changes. There is only one change of any consequence and a couple of variations of rules that have been in effect for many years. This is a further step on the part of the Committee to simplify and standardize the rules that now exist.

This should be very good news to the spectator, as the constant changes each fall, in the already complex set of rules under which the game is played, leave him a little bewildered on Saturday afternoon. Probably the most ardent fan is the "Old Grad" who developed his love of the game somewhat earlier in school and college. The rules as he knew them, in most cases, went out with the Model T and it is quite a struggle for him to keep up with what has gone on since.

Football Coaches and Players alike will be very happy as they have very little time to spend on rules with the many varied types of offenses and defenses they must master if they are to put a winning team on the field.

With the exception of the usual re-writes for the purpose of clarification and simplification, the changes of importance are the following:

Coaching from the sidelines re-written to cover all forms of communication with players on the field except by substitutes entering the game.

The old rule reads as follows, "There shall be no coaching from the sidelines," and there was a fifteen yard penalty for this foul under the heading of Unsportsmanlike Conduct. This rule was very hard to enforce and for a very good reason. There are twenty-two football players on the field and there are four officials, sometimes five, to watch them. If the official is concentrating on the play and players, as he should be, he could not very well also concentrate on the "Bench" at the same time. Without eyes in the back of his head, it would be impossible to know who was shouting instructions to players on the field. They could very well be coming from the "Grandstand Quarterbacks" who usually give more advice during the game than the coaches anyway.

In the second place, a coach could very easily communicate with his Quarterback more subtly through a set of signals such as a third base coach gives the batter in a baseball game. He naturally wouldn't go through as many gyrations but he could cross or uncross his legs, put his hat on or take it off, fold his arms over his chest or let them hang at his sides, scratch his chin, pull his ear, rub his nose, and on ad infinitum.

From now on he will have to use that substitute to get the information on the field, as the new wording of the rule is very specific. "There shall be no communication in any form with players on the field except by substitutes entering the game."

The rule governing the illegal touching of a free kick has been amended to conform with the rule governing scrimmage kicks.

If a scrimmage kick is touched by a member of the kicking team, beyond the line of scrimmage, before it has been touched by a member of the receiving team it is a violation which gives the receiving team the option of taking the ball at the spot of touching or the ultimate result of the play, whichever is more favorable to them, providing there has been no intervening foul for which there is a penalty.

The rule goes on to say, however, that a player of the kicking team who is pushed or blocked into the ball is not to be deemed as having touched the ball unless it was with his hand.

This rule has not been extended to cover Free Kicks, i.e. the Kickoff or the Kick after a Safety which is governed by the Kickoff Rule.

One substitute may enter the game at any time between successive downs.

In order to fully understand this rules change, it might be well to review last year's Substitution Rule which in effect was as follows: A player who started any period or one who subsequently entered during the period was permitted to reenter once more during the same period. In other words any player could get into the game a minimum of eight times during the afternoon.

In addition there was what was known as the "Wild Card" substitution which permitted any player who had not used up his two entries to go back into the game any time between downs when the clock was stopped and he was not charged with an entry as long as he was the only substitute sent in by his Coach.

This year the rule has been changed and liberalized and will give the Coach ample opportunity to communicate with his players on the field. The "Wild Card" man may go in at any time between downs this year, regardless of whether or not he has used his two charged entries. He may also go in regardless of whether or not the clock is running and whether or not the ball has been declared "ready for play," as long as he doesn't interfere with the play or players in so doing.

It is obvious that timing is going to be of utmost importance in getting this single substitute into the game. The only restriction is that once he goes into the game he must stay in for one play; and once he comes out he must remain out for one play. Otherwise he could run in and out every other play.

By alternating him with another player, the Coach can have a messenger in on every play and should have no excuse for not complying with the rule this year which prohibits communicating with players on the field except by substitutes.

This Is Football's Hall of Fame

There are 127 players and 45 coaches in the Football Hall of Fame, selected since 1951 by The Honors Court of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. They have been chosen from the more than 1,000,000 who have played and coached football in our American colleges. A player becomes eligible for consideration only after ten years after graduation, a coach three years after retirement. Here is the list of gridiron immortals already chosen to the Hall of Fame:

Today's Game

There are several seniors on the Virginia team today who remember a 1958 visit here when the later-to-be-crowned Clemson Tigers had to come from behind twice to nip the Cavaliers, 20-15. That same Tiger team was to win five more games by eight points or less and destined to play the Nation's No. 1 team, Louisiana State, in the Sugar Bowl that New Year's only to lose by the same narrow margin that had carried Clemson to a half dozen triumphs during the season.

And there are others on this Cavalier team who will recall the 47-0 trashing given by the 1959 ACC and Bluebonnet Bowl champion Tigers.

Other things remembered from the last half decade by the Charlottesville partisans is that no Virginia team has even beaten a Clemson eleven.

Probably most vivid in the minds of Virginians is that they haven't won a game since defeating Duke in the 1958 season — 20 losses ago.

Today's Tigers have been warned not to let these past victories over the Cavaliers bring comfort of what is to come. This Virginia edition scored 21 points against William & Mary in losing while fumbling once on the one foot line and having interceptions stop two other drives in the 26-7 loss to N. C. State.

Our coaches tell us that these Cavaliers are dangerous and desperate. They can score on land and through the air. There are sophomores who are eager, juniors who are tested and seniors who are seasoned. A band like this can cause trouble.

Clemson is going for its sixth straight victory over the Virginia Cavaliers today and its sixth in a row over the past two seasons. There is also a national ranking to protect, one of the many items the Tigers took for granted last week against another team from Virginia that almost proved fatal.

Clemson Football Network

Clemson's Football Network begins its seventh consecutive year of broadcasting this season, and it has proved to be one of the most successful athletic-operated networks anywhere.

From a meager beginning the network has grown by leaps and bounds and last year averaged having just over 42 stations a game for 10 games. Stations in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee have been on the network in the past and it has also served the "Pick of Dixie" series.

Jimmy Coggins and Ed Osborne will again handle the broadcasting on the network this fall. Coggins serves as the play-by-play commentator while Osborne gives interesting pre-game and post-game comments as well as sidelights throughout the contests.

Coggins, who is the dean of South Carolina sports broadcasters, is owner of Station WKDK in Newberry and is co-owner with Osborne with Station WBCU in Union. They are co-owners of Station WAGS in Bishopville.

Coggins broke into radio 26 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg. He also worked at WAIM in Anderson before going to Newberry in 1949. Prior to joining the network in 1954 he broadcast the Clemson games during the seasons of 1936-37-38-47-48-49. In 1950-51-52 he did the "Game of the Week" on Station WIS, Columbia.

Osborne served as director of both the Clemson news bureau and the sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950. A Clemson graduate, he left his dual post and joined Station WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953, he has been with WBCU.

Osborne is currently serving as president of the South Carolina Broadcasters Assn., while Coggins was singled out this past spring by being voted the "Sports Announcer of the Year" in South Carolina.

1960-61 Basketball . . .

Press Maravich has four years of Clemson basketball under his belt now and in each succeeding season, he has seen some improvement in his Tigers. However, he hopes to see the biggest stride made by his cage forces this season.

A tough 25-game schedule has been arranged with home-and-home dates slated with each Atlantic Coast Conference team, plus Furman and Florida State. Single games are planned with Marshall, Citadel, Texas, Rice and Davidson.

In their only tournament appearance the Tigers will open the season Dec. 2-3 in the Kent Invitational at Kent, Ohio, with Kent State, Syracuse and Massachusetts.

Three of the starters from last year's 10-16 club are back, led by all-conference Choppy Patterson. Patterson, as a sophomore last season, had the highest scoring average on the club, 16.4.

Returning with Patterson are Ed Krajack and Tommy Mahaffey. Krajack is a senior, Mahaffey a junior.

Help is also expected from senior Bill Warren who missed last season due to a broken arm suffered in late November. He had a 9.2 scoring average as a junior. Another probable starter is Speight Bird, 6-7 sophomore who was held out.

Coming up from the freshman squad are Larry Seitz (6-4), Mike Bohonak (6-3), Chuck Narvin (6-0), and Carl Ward (6-2).

Reserves joining these are Dave Wallace, Jim Leshock, Earle Maxwell, Bob Benson and Bill Bonzulak.
